About NUSRL, Ranchi

The National University of Study and Research in Law (NUSRL) was established by an Act of the State Legislature, inspired by the vision of India's constitutional forefathers. They recognized that law, legal systems, and legal institutions play a pivotal role in shaping the human, social, political, and economic development of the nation. Law, as a social process with a profound influence on societal dynamics, serves as the backbone for the healthy growth of democracy and the rule of law.

In the 21st century and beyond, India, with its rich heritage of legal culture, thought, and tradition, must continue on a path where law acts as a catalyst in realizing the goals enshrined in the Constitution. The Chancellor of the University is the Hon'ble Chief Justice of Jharkhand and the Hon'ble Governor of the State is its Rector. Also, the Hon'ble Chief Justice of India has been named as the Visitor of the University under the Act. The present Vice-Chancellor is Prof. (Dr.) Ashok R. Patil, a legal luminary of international repute.

The University's objectives align closely with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly Goal 4, which aims to ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all. By focusing on the upliftment of tribal and other indigenous communities, the University seeks to address educational disparities that these marginalized groups often face. Through targeted programs, culturally relevant curricula, and community engagement initiatives, the University promotes access to education, reducing barriers and ensuring that these communities benefit from the same opportunities for social and economic development as others.
