ABOUT THE PROJECT

Project NyaySetu is an initiative of the Centre for Labour Law and Research (CLLR) in collaboration with Central Coalfields Limited (CCL), aimed at strengthening labour welfare and empowering the worker community in Ramgarh and Ranchi. The project focuses on creating a meaningful bridge between workers and their rights by promoting awareness of labour laws, enhancing employability through structured skill-development programmes, supporting access to fair employment opportunities, and improving mechanisms for resolving workplace disputes through dispute resolution. Through field engagement and community outreach, NyaySetu seeks to build an informed, skilled, and confident workforce equipped to navigate both workplace realities and legal protections.
